

Fall 2009 M.A. Applicant Summary

The Communication M.A. program received completed applications from 50 applicants for Fall 2009 admission consideration as of the Feb. 1, 2009, review. The average student admitted had a 3.65 grade point average and a 1115 GRE score, resulting in 15 applicants being offered fall admission.

Students with a combined GRE below 970 were not considered for admission. We maintain a small, highly selective graduate program to ensure that each graduate student can be given the time and attention he or she deserves, while also managing approximately 900 undergraduate majors.
